

The Ambassador's Residency Portland Place, W1

Main Description:

This Vast and stunning Georgian house is dating back to 1764 and set in the heart of Central London. This stunning venue is a unique proposition for your events and shoots.

The house offers a number of different spaces from the raw and near derelict billiards room through to the ornate period drawing room with its original furniture features; accessed from the house's beautiful sweeping staircase leading from the entrance hall, which features the original stone floor.

The venue offers special rates for film and photo shoots.

Capacities:

Theatre style	50
Banquet	120 in the drawing room
Reception	350 across whole house

for further information, to check the diary and to arrange your viewing please contact

londonvenuecollection.co.uk

0870 383 4595